A food desert is an area, especially one with low-income residents, that has limited access to affordable and nutritious food. In contrast, an area with supermarkets or vegetable shops is termed a food oasis. The term food desert considers the type and quality of food available to the population, in addition to the number, nature, and size of food stores that are accessible. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Food_desert Why You Should Care About Nutrition | NutritionFacts.org Most deaths in the United States are preventable, and related to nutrition. Does it really matter what we eat? Well, the good news is, we have tremendous power over our health destiny and longevity. The majority of premature death and disability is preventable, with a healthy enough diet. It's ... SDE-Redirect - portal.ct.gov The page you are trying to access has moved.
